2. Recitals.

2.1. To help further the objective of assuring a reliable supply of electricity for California's retail end-use consumers, on May 31, 2001, the CDWR entered into the Original Contract.

2.2. In June 2002, certain of the Parties commenced discussions regarding renegotiation of the Original Contract.

2.3. On February 25, 2002, and on February 26, 2002, the CPUC and the CEOB, respectively, filed separate complaints in Docket Nos. EL02-60-000 and EL02-62-000 under Section 206 of the Federal Power Act at the FERC alleging, among other things, that the terms and the rates under the Original Contract are not Just and Reasonable or consistent with the public interest (the "CPUC Complaint" and the "CEOB Complaint," respectively).

2.6. The Parties desire to resolve certain matters and to avoid any future claims relating to them, including issues relating to the effectiveness, enforceability, validity or justness and reasonableness of the Renegotiated Contract, by way of compromise rather than by litigation. The Parties have agreed to resolve such matters and to ensure the ongoing effectiveness and validity of the Renegotiated Contract on the terms and conditions set forth in this Settlement Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual covenants contained herein, and the execution of the Renegotiated Contract, it is hereby agreed between and among the Parties as follows:

3. Closing

3.1 Each Party shall execute six (6) copies of the Settlement Agreement. By 5:00 p.m. Pacific time on the Effective Date, each Party shall deliver or send by facsimile to each other Party, one executed original or copy of this Settlement Agreement. Any party that sends an executed copy of this Settlement Agreement by facsimile shall also send the signed original by overnight mail for delivery the following business day.

3.2 CDWR and PGET shall execute four (4) copies of the Renegotiated Contract. By 5:00 p.m. Pacific time on the Effective Date, CDWR and PGET shall deliver executed copies of the Renegotiated Contract to each of the California State Releasing Parties.

3.3 This Settlement Agreement, including the releases and other actions provided for herein, and the Renegotiated Contract shall not become effective until and unless the CPUC has voted to adopt the Settlement Agreement. By 5:00 p.m. Pacific time on the Effective Date, the CPUC shall have considered and voted on approving the execution of this Settlement Agreement by the CPUC and communicated the outcome of the vote to PGET.

3.4 By 5:00 p.m. Pacific time on the Effective Date, the California State Releasing Parties and PGET shall have taken all actions necessary to authorize the execution and delivery of this Settlement Agreement and the Renegotiated Contract.

3.5 This Settlement Agreement, including the releases and other actions provided for herein, and the Renegotiated Contract shall not become effective until the requirements of Paragraphs 3.1 through 3.4 have been satisfied.

4. Mutual Release and Waiver.

4.1 The Original Contract and the Renegotiated Contract

Each of the California State Releasing Parties for itself hereby releases, acquits and forever discharges any and all claims of any nature whatsoever that it ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against PGET based on, or arising out of, in whole or in part, (1) the Original Contract, or (2) issues relating to effectiveness, due authorization, validity, or enforceability of any of the obligations of any of the California State Releasing Parties under the Renegotiated Contract or whether such obligations are Just and Reasonable. This release does not constitute a waiver by the California State Releasing Parties of the right to pursue remedies under the Renegotiated Contract for acts and omissions from and after the Effective Date as provided therein, including but not limited to (1) claims of breach of an obligation created by the Renegotiated Contract, (2) claims of failure to perform under the Renegotiated Contracts, and (3) disputes over the obligations created by, or the meaning of any terms used in, the Renegotiated Contract. The release in this section 4.1 applies only to matters based on, or arising out of, in whole or in part, the generation, sale, purchase, ownership and/or transmission of electricity, natural gas and/or other utility or energy goods and services pursuant to the Original Contract and the Renegotiated Contract, and does not include matters of general applicability including, without limitation, environmental, permitting, health, safety and taxation.

The California State Releasing Parties waive all rights to challenge the validity of the Renegotiated Contract or whether it is Just and Reasonable for and with respect to the entire term thereof, including any rights under Sections 205 and 206 of the Federal Power Act to request the FERC to revise the terms and conditions and the rates or services specified in the Renegotiated Contract, and hereby agree to make no filings at the FERC or with any other state or federal agency, board, court or tribunal challenging the rates, terms and conditions of the Renegotiated Contract as to whether they are Just and Reasonable or in the public interest. It is further agreed that, in the event of any future challenges to the Renegotiated Contract for any other reason, the Parties will not dispute the applicability, as to the Parties, of the public interest standard as that term has been defined and interpreted under the Federal Power Act and the cases of United Gas Pipe Line Co. v. Mobile Gas Corp., 350 U.S. 332 (1956), and FPC v. Sierra Pacific Power Co., 350 U.S. 348 (1956), and subsequent cases. The California State Releasing Parties and PGET acknowledge and agree that the Renegotiated Contract (but not any novation by means of a Replacement Agreement as defined in the Renegotiated Contract), is a “Priority Long Term Power Contract” under the Rate Agreement.

4.2 Original Contract, Renegotiated Contract and FERC

The CEOB and CPUC hereby agree to withdraw with prejudice, as to PGET only, all actions or complaints set forth in the CPUC Complaint and the CEOB Complaint pertaining to PGET pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 4.6 herein.

This provision shall not restrict in any other way the ability of the CEOB or the CPUC to continue to participate in the CPUC Complaint or CEOB Complaint.

4.3 PGET hereby releases, acquits and forever discharges any and all claims of any nature whatsoever that it ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against the California State Releasing Parties based on, or arising out of, in whole or in part, (1) the Original Contract, or (2) issues relating to effectiveness, due authorization, validity, or enforceability of any of the obligations of PGET under the Renegotiated Contract or whether such obligations are Just and Reasonable. This release does not constitute a waiver by PGET of the right to pursue remedies under the Renegotiated Contract for acts and omissions from and after the Effective Date as provided therein, including but not limited to (1) claims of breach of an obligation created by the Renegotiated Contract, (2) claims of failure to perform under the Renegotiated Contract, and (3) disputes over the obligations created by, or the meaning of any terms used in, the Renegotiated Contract. This release does not constitute a waiver of any claims by PGET that actions of the California State Releasing Parties subsequent to the Effective Date may constitute an “impairment of contract,” as used in the California and United States Constitution, with respect to the Renegotiated Contract. The release in this section 4.3 applies only to matters based on, or arising out of, in whole or in part, the generation, sale, purchase, ownership and/or transmission of electricity, natural gas and/or other utility or energy goods and services pursuant to the Original Contract and the Renegotiated Contract, and does not include matters of general applicability including, without limitation, taxation.

PGET hereby releases, acquits, and forever discharges the California State Releasing Parties from any and all claims arising on or before the Effective Date related to the claims described in Paragraphs 4.1 and 4.2.

4.4. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing in these Paragraphs 4.1 4.2, or 4.3 shall constitute a limitation to, or waiver of, any right to enforce any obligation or pursue any remedy provided under this Settlement Agreement or the Renegotiated Contract (including the enforcement of the releases provided by the Parties hereunder).

4.5 The California State Releasing Parties represent and agree that they will not enter into any subsequent settlement agreement or similar agreement with other persons or entities who generated, sold or marketed power in California settling claims similar to or arising out of the same general facts and circumstances as the Released Claims directly or indirectly providing such other person or entity with third party beneficiary rights under or related to the matters covered by the Rate Agreement.

4.6 The CEOB and CPUC hereby agree to withdraw with prejudice, by means of filing a Notice of Partial Withdrawal, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.216(a), as to PGET only, all actions or complaints set forth in the CPUC Complaint and the CEOB Complaint pertaining to the PGET within ten business days from the Effective Date. In filing to withdraw the CPUC Complaint and the CEOB Complaint as to PGET, the CEOB and the CPUC shall each advise the FERC that resolution has been reached between it and PGET concerning such actions and complaints. The contents of each such filing shall be consistent with the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

The Parties will cooperate and assist each other in good faith in the preparation and filing of such partial withdrawal in any and all proceedings arising out of, or related to, the request for partial withdrawal, including but not limited to acting in good faith to take all necessary actions to effectuate Federal Energy Regulatory Commission acceptance of the withdrawal and associated dismissal of the portions of the complaints and claims, and effectuation of the releases as contemplated in this Paragraph.

4.7. The California State Releasing Parties and PGET each expressly waives the benefits of any statutory provision or common law rule that provides, in sum or substance, that a release does not extend to claims which the party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by it, would have materially affected its settlement with the other party. In particular, but without limitation, each of the California State Releasing Parties and PGET expressly waives the provisions of California Civil Code section 1542, which statute reads:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor.

Each of the California State Releasing Parties and PGET may hereafter discover facts other than or different from those that it knows or believes to be true with respect to the claims released pursuant to the provisions of this Settlement Agreement, but each of the California State Releasing Parties and PGET hereby expressly waives and fully, finally and forever settles and releases any known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or unasserted, contingent or noncontingent claim with respect to the Released Claims, and without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts, except, with respect to the AG, criminal claims and claims of willful fraud.

4.8. The California State Releasing Parties and PGET each expressly represents and warrants that it has not sold, assigned, transferred, or encumbered, or otherwise disposed of, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, any claim released pursuant to this Settlement Agreement.

4.9. This Settlement Agreement may be pleaded as a full and complete defense to any claim that may be instituted, prosecuted or attempted in breach of this Settlement Agreement. The Parties further agree that their respective duties and obligations hereunder may be specifically enforced through an action seeking equitable relief or a petition for writ of mandamus by the Party or Parties for whose benefit such duty or obligation is to be performed, but no breach of any duty or obligation by any Party hereunder shall entitle any other Party to rescind or terminate this Settlement Agreement or the Renegotiated Contract. In any such action, and in any action to enforce the provisions of the Settlement Agreement, the prevailing Party shall recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

4.10 PGET agrees that it is subject to, and will comply in all material respects with, applicable rate filing requirements under the Federal Power Act and regulations thereunder, as those requirements may be interpreted, reviewed and revised by the FERC or a federal court from time to time.

4.11. The California State Releasing Parties and PGET expressly understand that both direct and indirect breaches of the provisions of this Settlement Agreement are proscribed. Therefore, the California State Releasing Parties and PGET covenant that each will not institute or prosecute, against the other, any action or other proceeding based in whole or in part upon any claims released by this Settlement Agreement; provided, however, the Parties expressly acknowledge that the CPUC Complaint and CEOB Complaint are continuing with respect to entities other than PGET and this Settlement Agreement is not intended to impair in any way the California State Releasing Parties' participation in those pending actions.

4.12. The Parties hereby waive and release any and all claims for attorneys' fees or costs, statutory or otherwise, related in any way to disputes pre-dating this Settlement Agreement or related to the Parties' entry into this Settlement Agreement.

4.13. The California State Releasing Parties hereby agree, represent, and warrant they will not encourage or take any action not otherwise required by law to assist any individual, entity, organization, agency, department, board, subdivision, or commission not bound hereunder or a party hereto to bring or maintain a claim in the nature of the Released Claims.

5. General Provisions.

5.1. In entering and making this Settlement Agreement, the Parties assume the risk of any mistake of fact or law. If the Parties, or any of them, should later discover that any fact they relied upon in entering this Settlement Agreement is not true, or that their understanding of the facts or law was incorrect, the Parties shall not be entitled to seek rescission of this Settlement Agreement by reason thereof. This Settlement Agreement is intended to be final and binding upon the Parties regardless of any mistake of fact or law.

5.2. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and for the benefit of any of the Parties and their successors and assigns. Nothing in this Settlement Agreement shall be construed or interpreted to impart any rights or obligations to any third party (other than a permitted successor or assignee bound to this Settlement Agreement).

5.3. Neither the provision of consideration in the form of the mutual covenants contained herein, nor the performance of any such covenants contained herein, nor anything contained or incorporated herein shall be deemed, nor shall the negotiations, execution and performance of this Settlement Agreement constitute, any admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing on the part of any Party; or any other form of admission with respect to any matter, thing or dispute whatsoever. Any such liability or wrongdoing is expressly denied.

5.4. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Parties that (1) it has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement and to perform all transactions, duties and obligations herein set forth, (2) it has taken all necessary actions duly and validly to authorize the execution and delivery of this Settlement Agreement and the other documents and agreements provided for herein to be executed and delivered by such Party in accordance with applicable law (3) it has duly and validly executed and delivered this Settlement Agreement and the other documents and agreements provided for herein to be executed and delivered by such Party, and (4) this Settlement Agreement and the other documents and agreements provided for herein to be executed and delivered by such Party constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of such Party, enforceable against such Party in accordance with their respective terms..

5.5. Each Party warrants the following: (1) it is represented by competent counsel with respect to this Settlement Agreement and all matters covered by it; (2) it has been fully advised by said counsel with respect to its rights and obligations and with respect to the execution of this Settlement Agreement; and (3) it authorizes and directs its respective attorneys to have such papers executed and to take such other action as is necessary and appropriate to effectuate the terms of this Settlement Agreement.

5.6. Each Party warrants that no promise, inducement or agreement not expressed herein has been made in connection with this Settlement Agreement. To the extent that it was deemed necessary and desirable by a Party, each such Party warrants that it has received appropriate, adequate, and competent technical and economic advice. Each Party warrants that it has not relied on any other Party for advice or guidance concerning the technical or economic implications or consequences of the Renegotiated Contract or this Settlement Agreement. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes and replaces all prior negotiations or proposed agreements, written or oral, with respect to the subject matter thereof.

5.7. This Settlement Agreement may not be altered, amended, modified or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a writing duly executed by an authorized representative of each of the Parties.

5.8. The language of this Settlement Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and intent, and not strictly for or against any Party, regardless of who drafted or was principally responsible for drafting the Settlement Agreement or any specific terms or conditions hereof. This Settlement Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties, and no Party shall urge otherwise.

5.9. The headings in this Settlement Agreement are for convenience only. They in no way limit, alter or affect the meaning of this Settlement Agreement.

5.10. This Settlement Agreement shall be construed and enforced pursuant to the laws of the State of California.

5.11. Should any provision of this Settlement Agreement be held illegal, such illegality shall not invalidate the whole of this Settlement Agreement; instead, the Parties shall use their best efforts to reform the Settlement Agreement in order to give effect to the original intention of the Parties in all material respects.

5.12. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in multiple original and/or facsimile counterparts, each of which is equally admissible in evidence and shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. This Settlement Agreement shall not take effect until each Party has signed a counterpart.

5.13. Each Party represents and warrants that it has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement and to perform all transactions, duties and obligations herein set forth. Each signatory to this Settlement Agreement who signs on behalf of a Party represents and warrants that he or she has the authority to sign on behalf of that Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Settlement Agreement as of Effective Date.
